Decided On:- 19.8.2008.

Narain Dass S/o Shri Datta Ram, R/o Village Chakka, P.O Kaduana, Tehsil Nalagarh, District Solan, HP.

Petitioner.

VERSUS

M/s Spray Engg. Devices Baddi, Tehsil Nalagrah, District, Solan.

Respondent.

Reference under section 10 of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947.

For petitioner:- Shri Rajesh Vats, Ld. Csl.
For respondent:- Shri O.P Chauhan, Ld. Csl.

AWARD

1. The following reference has been received for adjudication by this Court from the appropriate government:-

"Whether the services of Shri Narain Dass, ex-turner(daily wages) by the management of M/s Spray Engineering Devices, Baddi, Tehsil Nalagrah, District Solan,HP w.e.f. 16.6.1999 on the grounds of poor performance of the worker without any enquiry, notice, charge sheet and without compliance of section 25_F of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 is legal and justified. If not, to what relief of service benefits and amount of compensation, Shri Narain Dass is entitled."

2. The petitioner has filed a separate claim inter-alia therein that he was engaged as turner by the management of the respondent company on 19th March, 1998 and was discharging his duties with full missionary zeal and devotion and the respondent company did not allow the petitioner to work in the factory and was forcibly ousted by the respondent on 16.6.1999 without assigning any reason and that the petitioner was engaged as turner by the management after seeing good performance of the petitioner and during the course of his employment, the work of the petitioner was admired by the management of the company but the respondent illegally terminated the services of the petitioner without giving him an opportunity of being heard and without complying any provisions of law and the termination of the services of the petitioner by the management of the respondent company without holding any enquiry, notice, charge sheet and without the compliance of section 25-F of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 is illegal and unjustified and that the respondent only terminated the services of the petitioner in order to adjust some other person in the company on less wages and the petitioner is a poor person and having no source of income to support his large family and that the act of the respondent is wrong, illegal and unsustainable in the eyes of law and that the petitioner is entitled to all back-wages, seniority and other benefits, hence this claim.

3. The respondent resisted and contested the claim of the petitioner and filed reply inter-alia contending that the claim is totally wrong and false and in fact the petitioner was appointed on 1st June, 1999 as turner and the date of his appointment is wrongly mentioned in his appointment letter in order to create grounds of petition and in fact the petitioner did not report for duties after 15.6.1999 and it was known that he joined some another concern and the respondent never terminated his services forcibly and the petitioner was learning and adjusting himself in the work culture of the concern and in the mean time he left the job of his own and the petitioner himself abandoned the job and did not report for duties after 15.6.1999 and thus having no rights accrued in his favour specifically when he left the job without information.

4. No rejoinder filed. On the pleadings of the parties, the following issues were framed on 16.9.2004.

1. Whether the termination of services of the petitioner by respondent w.e.f. 16.9.1999 on the ground of poor performance of the worker without any enquiry, notice, charge sheet and without compliance of section 25-F of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 is legal and justified?

OPP...

2. If issue No-1 is not proved, to what relief of service benefits the petitioner is entitled to?

OPP...

3. Whether the petitioner himself abandoned the job, as alleged?

OPR...

4. Relief.

5. I have heard the Ld. Counsels for the parties and also gone through the record of the case. For the reasons to be recorded hereinafter while discussing issues for determination, my findings on the aforesaid issues are as under:-

Issue No-1:- Yes.

Issue No-2:- Not entitled to any relief.

Issue No-3:- Yes.

Relief:- Reference dismissed per operative part of award.

Reasons for Findings.

Issue No-1&3.

6. Coming to issue No-1 &3, both these issues are taken up and discussed together being co-related and interconnected for sake of convenience and to avoid repetition. Coming to these issues, the petitioner has examined himself as PW-1 who has stated that he was engaged by the respondent as turner w.e.f. 19.3.1998 on the salary of Rs. 2500/- per month thereafter, his wages were enhanced to Rs. 2600/- per month and his services were disengaged on 16.6.1999 without assigning any reason. He was not allowed to work after 16.6.1999 and the respondent did not allow him to enter into factory premises. He was engaged by the respondent after going through a test and his performance was appreciated by the management. His services were orally terminated. He has not left the job at his own. He is married and having four daughters and wife but no notice, charge sheet or any sort of enquiry was conducted against him. He was not given any retrenchment compensation or notice pay by the respondent at the time of his disengagement. New fresh hand was recruited immediately on ~~lower~~ wages than him and this was the main reason for his disengagement. He worked with full zeal and devotion and as such has prayed for reengagement in service along-with all consequential benefits including back-wages and continuity and seniority in service. He has also completed 240 days during above mentioned period.

7. PW-2 is shri Sat Pal, Welder with the some different organization has stated that he had worked with the respondent/company in 1997-98 and company told him to provide some turner and he introduced [✓]Narain Dass with the management and the management took the interview and after satisfaction, he was engaged. There was no report of poor performance of the petitioner. The respondent disengaged the services of the petitioner after 14-15 months and the petitioner was getting around Rs. 2600/- per month.

8. To rebut the case of the petitioner, the respondent company has examined Shri Santosh Kumar, Production Head of Spray Engineering Devices, who has stated that he is posted in the respondent company since May, 1986. He ^{is} ~~has~~ conversant with the engagement and wages of the workers working in the company. He knows the petitioner who was appointed in the company in June, 1999 as per attendance record of the company which he brought in the court and the photocopy of the original attendance register is Ex. R/1 from May 1999 to July, 1999. The petitioner worked under respondent only for 15 days. The attendance register of the worker is checked by the Labour Inspector once in 6 months. The petitioner has not come to ~~take~~ his wages up-to fill today. The wages register is maintained which he brought in the Court. The photocopy of the wages for the month of May to July, 1999 is Ex. R/2. He made enquiry from the other co-workers about the petitioner who told that he got some other job. The petitioner failed to join his duties and the petitioner has not applied for leave and had left the job without any permission.

9. The case of the petitioner is that he was engaged as turner by the respondent company on a salary of Rs. 2500/- and then his salary was enhanced to Rs. 2600/- per month and he had completed more than 240 working days in a preceding year when his services were terminated illegally by the respondent company without notice or compensation and as such he is entitled to reengagement with seniority and continuity in service along-with full back wages.

10. On the contrary, the respondent contended that the petitioner has only worked for 15 days in June, 1999 who left the job of his own and brought the attendance register for the month of May, 1999 to July 1999 which is Ex. R-1 and they have also inquired about the petitioner and they came to know that he joined some other concern.

11. I have considered the respective contention of both the parties and have scrutinized the record of the case. After the close scrutiny of the record of the case, it remains a fact that the petitioner examined himself as PW-1 and his relative Shri Sat Pal as PW-2 but he failed to prove on record that he had completed more than 240 working days in preceding year when his services were terminated by the respondent company. On the other hand, the respondent has proved on record that the petitioner has worked only for 15 days in June, 1999 who left the job of his own without taking leave from the respondent company and thereby abandoned the job of his own who was never terminated by the respondent company. It is well settled in AIR 2006 SCC 110 titled as Surendranagar District Panchyat V.

Dahyabhai Amarsinh in which it was held that:-

"workman claims to have worked for more than 10 years as daily wager. Apart from oral evidence, workman has not produced any evidence to prove fact that he has worked for 240 days. No proof of receipt of salary or wages or any record or order in that regard was produced. No co-worker was examined to discharge his burden that he was in employment for 240 days from the date of termination of his service; workman is not entitled for protection of section 25-F before his service was terminated."

12. In the instant case, the petitioner has not produced any evidence to prove the fact that he has worked for 240 days. No proof of receipt of salary or wages or any record or order in that regard was produced. No co-worker was examined to discharge his burden that he was in employment for 240 days from the date of termination of his service and the attendance register produced by the employer has not been contradicted and obviously therefore, the petitioner has failed to discharge his burden that he was in employment for 240 days during preceding 12 months of date of termination of his services and as such the workman is not entitled for protection of section 25-F before his service was terminated and therefore, his termination was just, legal and justified and the respondent has proved on record that the petitioner has abandoned his job of his own who was not terminated forcibly by the respondent management accordingly, both these issues are decided in favour of the respondent and against the petitioner.

Issue No-2

13. Since I have held under issue No-1 & 3 above, that the petitioner himself has abandoned the job of his own and as such, the petitioner is not entitled to any relief of service benefits, hence this issue is decided accordingly.

Relief.

As a sequel to above discussion and findings on issue No-1 to 3, the claim fails and is hereby dismissed and the reference is ordered to be answered accordingly. Let a copy of this award be sent to the appropriate government for publication in the official gazette. File after completion be consigned to records.

Petitioner.

VERSUS

1. State of Himachal Pradesh through Secretary (PW) to Government of HP Shimla-1.
2. Executive Engineer, HP Public Works department, Taklech Division Taklech, District Shimla HP.

Respondent.

Reference under section 10 of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947.

For petitioner:- Shri B.N Mishra, Ld. Csl.
For respondent:- Shri T.C Kainthla, Ld. DDA.

AWARD

1. The following reference has been received for adjudication by this Court from the appropriate government:-

"Whether the termination of services of Shri Ashok Kumar, S/o Shri Tara Chand, Ex. Daily wages beldar by the Executive Engineer, HPPWD (B&R) Division, Rampur Bushehar, District Shimla, HP w.e.f. 14.10.1998 without complying the provisions of Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 and whereas junior to him are retained as alleged by the workman is proper and justified? If not, what relief of service benefits and amount of compensation the above aggrieved workman is entitled to?"

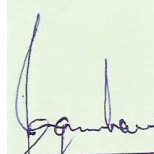

2. The petitioner has filed a separate claim inter-alia pleading therein that he was engaged as daily wages Driver under the Executive Engineer, HPPWD Taklech Division which is

Presiding Judge
Labour Court/Industrial
Tribunal (H.P.) Shimla - 1

under the Rohroo Circle of HPPWD and worked as such w.e.f. 1.5.1998 to 13.10.1998 for a total period of 166 days as daily wages Driver in Truck No. HPS-7788 and HIS 6069 belonging to HPPWD and then HPPWD orally terminated his service w.e.f. 14.10.1998 in the most illegal and arbitrary manner whereas sufficient work was available under the said Division and that the petitioner was disengaged and in his place Shri Ram Chand, S/o Shri Mansa Ram who is much junior to the petitioner and was engaged as daily wages Driver in violation of the well settled principle of a daily wager cannot be replaced by another daily wager and therefore, the Executive Engineer Taklech Division has violated the provisions of section 25-H of the Industrial Disputes Act and that despite of several representation in this regard to the Executive Engineer, HPPWD NABARD circle Rohroo District Shimla, no action was taken in the matter and then the petitioner filed O.A No. 2983 of 1999 before the HP State Administrative Tribunal but the Tribunal has no jurisdiction to adjudicate ~~to~~ ~~adjudicate~~ the matter and as such, the petitioner was directed to approach the appropriate Forum, hence, this claim.

3. The respondents resisted and contested the claim of the petitioner and filed reply inter-alia contending that Shri Ashok Kumar was engaged as daily waged Driver on short term basis for 86 days. For first time he was engaged from 5/98 to 7/98 for 86 days and then during 8/98 for 28 days and then during 10/98 for 10 days and it was not possible for the department to give long time job and alleged Ramesh Chand was senior in department as he was engaged as Cleaner and had driving licence, so he was engaged as Driver in August, 1994 by following the principle of first come last go and therefore, the claim is not maintainable. On merits, it is contended that the petitioner has worked for 124 days as per record of the muster roll and detail of which is given as under:-

 Labour Court/Industrial
 Tribunal (H. P.) Shimla - 1

Months	M/Roll No.	Days.
5/98	21	30
6/98	62	30
7/98	121	26
8/98	159	28
10/98	216	10

However, it is denied that the services of the petitioner was terminated on 14.10.1998 in-fact, he was being engaged ~~from~~ time to time for specific period on casual worker basis, which is evident from the perusal of muster roll, hence, the termination is not illegal as the petitioner was clearly told before engaging him on muster roll that he was being engaged on casual basis for specific period as per requirement, but Ramesh Chand working on muster roll was senior in the department as he was working since 1/94 in different category, hence, no provisions of section 25-H of the Industrial Disputes Act, has been violated.

4. In the rejoinder, the petitioner controverted the assertions made in the reply and reaffirmed and reiterated the averments of the petition.

5. On the pleadings of the parties, the following issues were framed by this Court on 7.6.2006.

1. Whether the services of the petitioner has been illegally terminated by the respondent without complying the provisions of I.D Act, 1947? If so, its effect?

4. Relief.

6. I have heard the Ld. Counsels for the parties and also gone through the record of the case. For the reasons to be recorded hereinafter while discussing issues for determination, my findings on the aforesaid issues are as under:-

Issue No-1:- No.

Issue No-2:- Not entitled to any relief.

Relief:- Claim dismissed per operative part of award.

Reasons for Findings.

Issue No-1.

7. Coming to ~~Issue~~ ^{issue} No-1, the petitioner has examined himself as PW-1 who has stated that he was engaged as Driver by the respondent in May, 1998 in Rohroo circle. Seniority list is maintained in circle wise. He was driving a Truck as there was no Driver to drive those Trucks. He does not know whether Ramesh Chand was in the Rampur circle. Ramesh Chand is not working with him in Taklech Division. There was no senior driver in Taklech Sub-Division ^{that of} than him. He was removed from service in 14th October, 1998 but no defect in his service was pointed out and his Truck was given for driving to a regular driver of the department. Ramesh was posted as conductor on daily

[Signature]
Residing Judge
Labour Court/Industrial

wages and also permitted to drive the vehicle and his termination is illegal and as such he may be reinstated.

8. On the other hand, the respondents in rebuttal have examined Shri Kahan Singh, SDO HPPWD Rampur who has stated that he is conversant with the facts of the case and the petitioner was engaged as Driver on daily wages in May, 1998 for a short period for plying the Truck and petitioner remained in job till August, 1998 and left the job in September, 1998 and was reengaged in October, 1998 for short period and thereafter, he left the job. Shri Ramesh Chand was engaged as cleaner in 1994 was having driving licence has been transferred and permitted to ply the Truck on daily wages. A regular Driver has joined his duties at the place from where Ramesh Chand was shifted and the mandays chart of the Ramesh Chand is Ex. RA and the muster roll of the petitioner are Ex. R-1 to Ex. R-5. No junior to the petitioner has been engaged and the petitioner has not completed 240 days and no compensation has been given to the petitioner as he was engaged only for short period.

9. The case of the petitioner is that since he had worked for 166 days as daily wages driver in HPPWD Taklech Division and his junior Shri Ramesh Chand was engaged as daily waged driver in violation of well settled principle of last come first go and his oral termination is illegal and arbitrary as there is sufficient work available under the said division and as such entitled to be re-engaged with seniority and full back wages.

10. On the contrary, the respondents have contended that the petitioner has only worked for 124 days as

[Signature]
Presiding Judge
Labour Court/Industrial
Shimla - 1

per record of the muster roll. Moreover, Shri Ramesh Chand S/o Mansa Ram was senior in department as he was engaged as cleaner and having driving licence so he was engaged as driver in the year 1994 and therefore, it does not lie in the mouth of petitioner to say that Ramesh Chand was junior to him in the department and since the petitioner has not completed 240 working days in a preceding calendar year, hence, his case does not fall under section 25-F of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947.

11. I have considered the respective contention of both the parties and have scrutinized the record of the case. After the close scrutiny of the record of the case it remains a fact that the petitioner had worked as driver in HPPWD Taklech Division for 124 days as per muster roll Ex. R-1 to ex. R-5 and there is nothing on record which could show that the petitioner had worked for 166 days as claimed by him. Apart from it, it is proved by RW-1 Shri Kahan Singh SDO that Ramesh Chand S/o Shri Mansa Ram was not junior to the petitioner rather he was senior to the petitioner who was engaged in the year 1994 having driving license with him whereas the petitioner was engaged as a driver on 1.5.1998.

12. Apart from it, the working days of Ramesh Chand, placed on record who joined the department in the year 1994 and obviously therefore, ^{it} does not lie in the mouth of petitioner to say that Shri Ramesh Chand was his junior ^{it} especially when it has been proved on record that Ramesh Chand was much senior to him who joined the HPPWD in 1994 whereas the petitioner joined the HPPWD department in the year 1998 and

[Signature]
Residing Judge
Labour Court/Industrial
Tribunal (H. P.) Shimla - I

thus, there was no breach of section 25-G & H of the Act. Now advertent to the other aspect of the case, It is proved on record that the petitioner was not appointed on regular basis but engaged on the basis of need of work on day to day basis and as such, it was held in (2006) 6 SCC 221, case titled as Reserve Bank of India V. Gopinath Sharma & Anr. In which it was held that:-

"Workman not appointed to any regular post but engaged on the basis of need of work on day to day basis, held, had no right to the post."

13. It was further held in (1997)-II SCC 521 case titled as Escorts Limited V. Presiding Officer & Anr. in which it was held that:-

"Terms of appointment enabling the employer to terminate the services at any stage without assigning any reason. In such circumstances, termination of service under the said terms even though effected before the expiry of the specified period, held, did not amount to retrenchment, hence did not attract section 25-F & 25-G of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947."

14. Apart from it, though the petitioner claimed to have worked for 166 days but he could not prove on record that he had worked for 166 days whereas from the record it has been proved that the petitioner had worked only for 124 days in a preceding year and even if it is considered that the petitioner has worked for 166 days even then it is the case of the petitioner himself that he had worked much less than 240 days and there is no proof of receipt of salary or wages or any record or order in that regard was produced by the petitioner. No co-worker was

[Signature]
Presiding Judge
Labour Court/Industrial
Himachal Pradesh

examined, obviously therefore, the petitioner has failed to discharge his burden that he was in employment for 240 days during preceding 12 calendar month from the date of his termination from service and the petitioner is not entitled for protection of section 25-F before his service was terminated. Here, I am fortified with a view taken by their lordships of Hon'ble Supreme Court in case titled as Surendranagar District Panchyat V. Dahyabhai Amarsinh reported in AIR 2006 SCC 110. .in which it was held that:-

"workman claims to have worked for more than 10 years as daily wager. Apart from oral evidence, workman has not produced any evidence to prove fact that he has worked for 240 days. No proof of receipt of salary or wages or any record or order in that regard was produced. No co-worker was examined to discharge his burden that he was in employment for 240 days."

15. Thus, on the strength of above cited ruling of Hon'ble Supreme Court and in view of my findings and discussion on the evidence led by the parties, it can safely be concluded that the services of the petitioner has not been illegally terminated by the respondent without complying the provisions of Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 and as such, issue No-1 is answered in negative.

Issue No-2

17. Since, I have held under issue No-1 above, that the services of the petitioner has been legally terminated by the respondent hence, he is not entitled to any relief as claimed by him and as such issue No-2 is decided accordingly.

[Signature]
Presiding Judge
Labour Court/Industrial
Tribunal (H. P.) Shimla - 1

Issue No-3.

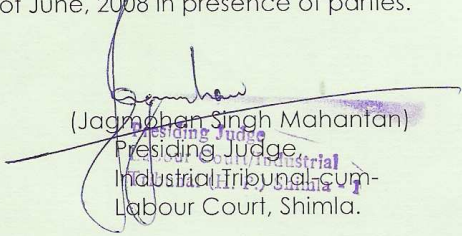

18. In support to this issue, no evidence was led by the respondent nor ~~it was~~ pointed out during the course of arguments as to how the petition is not maintainable. In view of no such evidence on record, I hold that the petition is maintainable in the present form. Accordingly issue No-3 is decided against the respondent.

Relief.

As a sequel to above discussion and findings on ~~point~~ ^{issue} No-1 ~~the~~ ^{the} claim fails and is hereby dismissed and the reference is ordered to be answered accordingly. Let a copy of this award be sent to the appropriate government for publication in the official gazette. File after completion be consigned to records.

AWARD

1. The following reference has been received for adjudication by this Court from the appropriate government:—

“Whether the termination of services of Shri Kamlender Singh Ex-daily wages beldar by the Chief Scientist HP Krishi Vishw Vidyalay (T&V Project) Regional Research Station Dhaulakaun District Sirmaur HP w.e.f. 22.10.1989 without compliance of section 25-F of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947, on completion of 240 days continuous services as alleged, is legal and justified. If not, to what relief of service benefits and amount of compensation, Shri Kamlender Singh is entitled ?”

“Whether shri Kamlender Singh has left the services on his own as alleged. If so its effect?”

2. The petitioner has filed a separate claim asserting therein that he was serving as daily waged beldar/labourer under the HP Krishi Vishvavidyalaya, Regional Research Station, Dhaulakaun, District Sirmaur, HP w.e.f. 17.8.1988 who served as such till 21st October, 1989 when his services were disengaged without any notice and without following the mandatory provisions of section 25-F of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 and junior to him who were recruited much latter to him are still continuing and the principle of last come first go was also not observed while dispensing with the services of the petitioner and even fresh engagement have been made after the disengagement the services of the petitioner violating the section 25-H of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 and that the applicant completed 240 days of service for the application of section 25-F of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 and his services could not be dispensed with without following the mandatory provisions of section 25-F of the Act and the petitioner approached the concerned authorities many times but to no avail, hence the petitioner prayed for his reengagement in service with retrospective effect, continuity of service, back-wages and allied service benefits, and as such this claim.

3. The respondent resisted and contested the claim of the petitioner, which filed reply inter-alia raising preliminary objections of limitation, the reference being bad in the eyes of law and that the petitioner has not approached this Court with clean hands. On merits, it is contended that the petitioner was never engaged as daily wages beldar but the petitioner worked as daily wages beldar till November, 1989 and the services of the petitioner never terminated by the respondents but he himself abandoned the job of his own and as such the question of attraction of section 25-F does not arise at all and the respondents have not engaged any fresh hands in the employment, hence the question of violation of section 25-G & H does not arise and that the petitioner had completed 240 days in the calendar year but in November, 1989 he himself abandoned the job and never turned up, hence prayed for dismissal of the petition.

4. No rejoinder filed. The following issues were framed on 14.3.2006.

1. Whether the termination of service of Shri Kamlander Singh petitioner by respondent w.e.f. 22.10.1989 without any notice, charge sheet, enquiry and without compliance of section 25-H and G of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 on completion of 240 days continuous service is legal and justified?

2. If issue No-1 is not proved to what amount of compensation the petitioner is entitled to?

3. Whether Kamlander Singh petitioner has left the service of his own as alleged?

4. Whether the claim is barred by limitation as alleged?

7. Relief.

5. I have heard the Ld. Counsels for the parties and have also gone through the record of the case.

6. For the reasons to be recorded hereinafter while discussing the issues for determination, my findings on the aforesaid issues are as under:—

Issue No-1:-	Yes.
Issue No-2:-	Not entitled to any relief.
Issue No-3:-	Yes.
Issue No-4:-	No.
Issue No.5:-	No.
Issue No.6:-	No.
Relief:-	Claim dismissed per operative part of award.

REASONS FOR FINDINGS.

Issue No-1.

7. Coming to issue No-1, the petitioner has examined himself as PW-1 who has stated that he was engaged in August 1988 as beldar in Dhaulakaun at Agriculture University and worked till November, 1989. He was removed from service orally telling him that he would be called as and when the muster roll was issued by the department. He has gone in the office many times to enquire about the muster roll and the respondent told him that they would inform him as and when the muster roll for work is received. No notice or letter was given to him by the respondent about his termination nor compensation was paid to him. He had not abandoned his job and junior to him are still working with the respondent.

8. On the contrary, the respondents have examined Dr. S.S Paliyal as RW-1 who has stated on oath that he has been posted as Scientist at Dhaula Kaun since 1995 and he has been authorized to appear in this case as per authority letter Ex. RA who has brought the record of the case. The petitioner was engaged in Aug. 1988 and abandoned his job in November, 1989 as per mandays Chart Ex. RB. The petitioner never approached the department for his reengagement after 1989. The petitioner was working in a temporary project which came to an end in 2000. No new person has been engaged by the department on this project and no copy of Industrial Dispute/Demand notice has been sent by the petitioner to the department as per record brought by him in the Court.

9. The case of the petitioner is that he was engaged as beldar on daily wages by the respondent department, who has completed more than 240 working days in 1988-89 i.e one year preceding his termination from service and even his junior was retained by the respondent who are still continuing with the respondent department and as such his services is liable to be reengaged along-with all retrospective benefits.

10. On the contrary, the respondents contend that the petitioner was engaged as casual labourer for a seasonal work who only completed more than 240 working days in 1988-89 and left the work in 1989 of his own and did not report for duties subsequently, when he was called upon to do so and since the services of the petitioner was disengaged on completion of work who was appointed according to the need of work and as such, the petitioner has no right to post being casual labourer.

11. I have considered the respective contention of both the parties and have scrutinized the record of the case.

12. After the closed scrutiny of the record of the case, it remains a fact that the petitioner has admitted in his cross-examination that he joined as beldar in TNV Project at Dhaulakaun as the daily wages during 1988-89 were very less in the government Department and therefore it is clear that the petitioner himself abandoned the job of his own who subsequently joined the TNV Project at Dhaulakaun. The petitioner does not know whether the work of the respondents is over and in other words no work is available with the respondents to offer employment to the petitioner. However, It is well settled in (2006) 6 SCC 221, case titled as Reserve Bank of India V. Gopinath Sharma & Anr. In which it was held that :—

“Workman not appointed to any regular post but engaged on the basis of need of work on day to day basis, held, had no right to the post.”

13. Similarly in 2006 (2) SCC 794 in case titled as Haryana State Agricultural Marketing Board V. Subhash Chand & Anr. In which it was held that:—

“If nature of service does not come within purview of definition of retrenchment in section 2(oo), question of applicability of section 25-G does not arise. Bare perusal of offer of appointment (set out in para 2 herein) clearly shows that respondent was appointed on seasonal contracts. Hence, respondent not having been reengaged on expiry thereof, he was not retrenched within meaning of section 2(oo), and his case fell exception in section 2(oo)(bb). Hence, section 25-G was inapplicable in his case and dispensing with engagement of respondent cannot be said to be unwarranted in law.”

14. Apart from it was further held in case titled as Punjab State Electricity Board V. Darbara Singh reported in 2006 LLR 68 SC. And in case titled as Municipal Council Samrala V. Surhwinder Kaur reported in 2006 LLR 1009 SC. In which it was held that:—

“ material on record established that engagement of workman was for specific period and as such his termination will be excluded as per the provisions of section 2(oo)(bb) of the I.D Act and hence, no retrenchment compensation will be payable on his termination even when he has worked for more than 240 days in the preceding 12 calendar months.”

15. Now, turning to the other aspect of the case, the petitioner tried to establish on record that his juniors are still continuing with the respondent department but he did not prove on record that on which date they joined the department and in fact they were juniors to the petitioner. On the other hand, the respondents have proved on record that the petitioner was engaged as casual labourer and the petitioner was called when the work was available with the respondents but the petitioner himself abandoned the job of his own by joining some other project under the name and style of TNV Project at Dhaulakaun and further the petitioner was engaged for specific work and for specific time as per the need of the work and as such it does not lie in the mouth of petitioner to claim any right over the post which was offer to him for specific period and for specific work and therefore, the case of petitioner cannot be accepted for his reinstatement keeping in view the entire facts and circumstances of the case.

16. Thus, on the strength of the above cited rulings and having regard to the evidence on record, it can safely be concluded that the services of Shri Kamlender Singh petitioner by respondent w.e.f. 22.10.1989 without any notice, charge sheet, enquiry and without compliance of section 25-H and G of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 on completion of 240 days continuous service is legal and justified and rather the petitioner was engaged as casual labourer for seasonal work and for specific period, who himself abandoned the job of his own when the work was available with the respondents and as such, this issue is decided against the petitioner and in favour of the respondents.

Issue No-2.

17. Since, I have held under issue No-1 above, that the services of Shri Kamlender Singh, petitioner by respondent w.e.f. 22.10.1989 without any notice, charge sheet, enquiry and without compliance of section 25-H and G of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 on completion of 240 days continuous service is legal and justified, hence the petitioner is not entitled to any service benefits. Accordingly, the issue No-1 is answered in negative.

Issue No-3.

18. In support of this issue, the petitioner as PW-1 has admitted himself in his cross examination that he joined as beldar in TNV Project at Dhaulakaun as the daily wages during 1988-89 were very less in the government Department and therefore it is clear that the petitioner himself abandoned the job of his own who subsequently joined the TNV Project at Dhaulakaun and therefore it can safely be concluded that the petitioner himself left the job of his own or in other words he abandoned the job of his own. Accordingly, this issue is decided in favour of respondents and against the petitioner.

Issue No-4.

19. In support to this issue, no evidence was led by the respondent being the legal issue. However I have scrutinized the record of the case and observed that there is no limitation under the I.D Act as it was held by there lordship of Hon'ble Supreme Court reported in (1999) 6 SC 82 case titled as Ajayab Singh Vs. Sirhind Co-operative Marketing –cum- processing Service Society Limited and Another in which it was held that:—

“the provisions of Article 137 of Limitation Act, 1963 are not applicable to the proceeding under the ID Act. The relief under the ID Act cannot be denied merely on the ground of delay. The plea of delay if raised by the employer is required to be proved as a matter of fact by showing the real prejudice and not as a merely hypothetical defence. No reference to the Labour Court can be generally questioned on the ground of delay alone”

Accordingly, on the strength of this ruling, it can safely be concluded that this petition is not barred by limitation. Accordingly, issue No-4 is decided in favour of petitioner and against the respondent.

Issue No. 5.

20. No evidence was led by the respondent in order to prove this issue nor it was pressed during the course of arguments, hence this issue is decided in negative being not pressed.

Issue No. 6.

21. No evidence was led by the respondent in order to prove this issue nor it was pressed during the course of arguments, hence this issue is decided in negative being not pressed.

Relief.

As a sequel to above discussion and findings on issue No-1 to 6, the claim fails and is hereby dismissed and the reference is ordered to be answered accordingly. Let a copy of this award be sent to the appropriate government for publication in the official gazette. File, after completion, be consigned to records.

IN THE COURT OF JAGMOHAN SINGH MAHANTAN, PRESIDING JUDGE, INDUSTRIAL TRIBUNAL-CUM-LABOUR COURT, SHIMLA.

Ref No. 285 of 2001.
Instituted On. 19.11.2001.
Decided On. 29.9.2008

Geeta Ram, S/o Shri Jagar Nath C/o Sharma Vaishnav Dhaba, Shoghi, Tehsil & District Shimla, HP.
.. Petitioner.

Versus

The Divisional Forest Officer (Wild Life) Khalini, Shimla- 02. .. Respondent.

Reference under section 10 of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947.

For petitioner :- Shri S.D Gill, Ld. Csl.
For respondent :- Shri T.C Kainthla, Ld. DDA.

AWARD

1. The following reference has been received for adjudication by this Court from the appropriate government:—

“Whether the termination of services of Shri Geeta Ram S/o Shri Jagan Nath w.e.f. 1.3.2000 by the Divisional Forest officer (Wildlife), Khalini, Shimla-2 without compliance of the provisions of section 25-F of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 is legal and justified? If not, to what relief of service benefits, wages, seniority and amount of compensation Shri Geeta Ram is entitled to?”

2. The petitioner has filed a claim asserting therein that he was engaged as Chowkidar by the respondent in September, 1994 and worked as such till 31.3.2000 on which date he was assured that he would be taken back after some time but now the respondent is not hearing the request of the petitioner and that in the year 1994, the petitioner was appointed as Chowkidar by the respondent and he worked as Chowkidar in the office of Chief Wild Life Divisional Officer Wild Life and Range Officer Wild Life and even during day time he was assigned the duties of beldar on certain occasions for replanting the saplings etc. and that the certificate issued to the petitioner is annexure C-1 and the letter dated 30th May, 1997 of the DFO Wild Life Shimla-2 is annexure C-2 and that the respondent though regularly taken the work of Chowkidar from the petitioner but the respondent has shown the petitioner as daily rated beldar intentionally with a purpose to exploit the petitioner and that the respondent has orally terminated the services of the petitioner w.e.f. 31.3.2000 and as such the action of the respondent is liable to be set aside as the action of the respondent is highly arbitrary, void, illegal, unconstitutional, capricious, beyond the legitimacy and all reasonableness, violative of all principles of natural justice, vitiated for perversity and issued in bad faith and that the action of the respondent is against the law as the respondent had not followed the law laid down in the Industrial Disputes Act and other Legislations and that the respondent has not paid equal pay of equal work to the petitioner and that the respondent has not acted as a model employer and that it is the policy of the respondent to regularize the persons who has completed 5 years of service as daily wages but in the instant case the respondent is acting arbitrarily and that the action of the respondent is illegal whose action is violative of section 25-F of the Industrial Disputes Act, as no notice in advance or salary in lieu of that along-with retrenchment compensation has been given to the petitioner and that the petitioner has worked for 240 days in each calendar year from 1994 till oral termination dated 31.3.2000 and as such prayed for reinstatement as Chowkidar with all consequential benefits along-with interest after applying the principle of equal pay for equal work from 1994 and also prays for regularization, hence this claim duly supported by an affidavit.

3. The respondent resisted and contested the claim of the petitioner, which filed reply interalia raising preliminary objections that the petitioner was engaged on daily wages basis from September, 1994 in NORAD Project, Wildlife Division Shimla, in foreign aided ECO (NORAD) Project, where the petitioner worked till 31.3.2000 and that the work on which the petitioner was engaged were being carried out exclusively under foreign aided project called Eco-Development NOARD Project and since this project has come to close due to non availability of funds, all daily waged labourer including the petitioner was disengaged and no vested right is created in temporary employment, hence the claim petition is not maintainable. On merits, it is contended that the petitioner was engaged w.e.f. September, 1994 till 31.3.2000 and that the petitioner worked as ward and watch on daily wages basis in NORAD Project. It is admitted that the petitioner was engaged as daily wagger in the department under foreign aided ECO NOARD Project w.e.f. September, 1994 till 31.3.2000 when the project came to an end due to non availability of funds and the mandays chart of the petitioner is annexure R-1 and as such prayed for dismissal of the claim petition.

4. In the rejoinder, the petitioner controverted the assertions made in the reply and reaffirmed and reiterated the averments made in the claim.

5. The following issues were framed by this Court on 27.7.2006 on the pleadings of the parties.

1. Whether the services of the petitioner has been illegally terminated without complying the provisions of section 25-F of Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 ? If so, its effect? ..OPP
2. If issue No.1 is proved in affirmative to what relief the petitioner is entitled to? ..OPP
3. Whether the petitioner has no locus standi to file the present petition as the project for which he was engaged has already been closed? ..OPR
4. Relief.

6. I have heard the Ld. Counsels for the parties and have also gone through the record of the case.

7. For the reasons to be recorded hereinafter while discussing the issues for determination, my findings on the aforesaid issues are as under:-

Issue No.	No.
Issue No.2	Not entitled to any relief.
Issue No.3	Yes.
Relief.	Reference answered in negative per operative part of award.

Issue No. 1.

8. Coming to issue No.1, the petitioner has examined himself as PW-1 who has stated that he was appointed as Chowkidar by respondent in September, 1994 and remained as such till 31.3.2000 when his services were terminated without paying any compensation. No written termination orders were given to him who was working in the office at Khalini and his work was appreciated by the officer as per Ex. PA. Juniors to him S/Shri Bhagat Ram, Bhag Singh and Jinder Singh are still working in the department. Office Superintendent had quarreled with him and after beating him, his services got terminated and the letters pertaining to this case is Ex. PW-1/C and the letter dated 13.5.1997 wherein he was stated to be daily wagger Chowkidar is Ex. PW-1/B and prayed for reinstatement with all consequential benefits.

9. To rebut the case of the petitioner, the respondent has examined Shri Sushil Sharma, Superintendent DFO Wild Life Shimla, who has stated that the petitioner was engaged at Khalini Park as watch and ward under NORAD Project which was central aided and financed by Norway Government and the project was completed in 2000. The services of the petitioner was engaged only for this project and as per muster roll the petitioner was engaged as watch and ward in wild Life, who never engaged as Chowkidar. The department has not taken the duties in the office from the petitioner as Chowkidar. Bhagat Ram was the conductor with the department and no Bhag Singh was serving in the department. Shri Jinder Singh was earlier serving under DFO Shimla from where he was transferred to their office. The services of the Bhag Singh and Jinder Singh were terminated by the respondent but both of them were reengaged by the order of the Hon'ble High Court and Administrative Tribunal and the services of the petitioner came to an end with the completion of the project.

10. The case of the petitioner is that he being the daily waged chowkidar had worked for more than 240 days continuously in each calendar year, who was never served with any notice nor paid retrenchment compensation before his termination and his juniors are still working in the department and as such he is entitled to be reinstated in service along with all consequential benefits including back wages.

10. On the contrary, the respondent contends that the petitioner has not completed 240 working days in a calendar year preceding his abandonment and even the petitioner was engaged for specific work and for specific period and the services of the petitioner came to an end on the completion of the work and no junior to the petitioner has been engaged by the department and as such the petitioner is not entitled to any relief as claimed by him.

11. I have considered the respective contention of both the parties and have scrutinized the record of the case.

12. After the close scrutiny of the record of the case, it is the admitted case of the petitioner that his services were terminated on the completion of the work as he himself has admitted in his cross-examination that his services came to an end after the completion of the project. It is well settled in (2006) 6 SCC 221, case titled as Reserve Bank of India V. Gopinath Sharma & Anr. In which it was held that :—

“Workman not appointed to any regular post but engaged on the basis of need of work on day to day basis, held, had no right to the post.”

13. Similarly in 2006 (2) SCC 794 in case titled as Haryana State Agricultural Marketing Board V. Subhash Chand & Anr. In which it was held that:—

“If nature of service does not come within purview of definition of retrenchment in section 2(oo), question of applicability of section 25-G does not arise. Bare perusal of offer of appointment (set out in para 2 herein) clearly shows that respondent was appointed on seasonal contracts. Hence, respondent not having been reengaged on expiry thereof, he was not retrenched within meaning of section 2(oo), and his case fell under exception in section 2(oo)(bb). Hence, section 25-G was inapplicable in his case and dispensing with engagement of respondent cannot be said to be unwarranted in law.”

14. Apart from it, it was further held in case titled as Punjab State Electricity Board V. Darbara Singh reported in 2006 LLR 68 SC. And in case titled as Municipal Council Samrala V. Surhwinder Kaur reported in 2006 LLR 1009 SC. In which it was held that:—

“material on record established that engagement of workman was for specific period and additional as such his termination will be excluded as per the provisions of section 2(oo)(bb) of the I.D Act and hence, no retrenchment compensation will be payable on his termination even when he has worked for more than 240 days in the preceding 12 calendar months.”

15. Apart from it, it is seen that when the project is closed due to non availability of funds, consequently the employees have to go along with the close project. No vested right is created in temporary employment. Directions cannot be given to regularize their services in the absence of any existing vacancies nor directions be given to create post by the state to a non existent establishment. Here I am fortified with a view taken by Hon’ble Supreme court in case titled as State of Himachal Pradesh through the Secretary (Rural Development) to the Govt. of Himachal Pradesh Shimla Vs. Ashwani Kumar & Ors. 1996 (2) SLJ SC 294 in which it was held that :—

“Project closed due to non availability of funds- temporary employees engaged on the project not entitled to regularization.”

16. Thus, having regard to entire evidence on record and having taken into consideration the statement of petitioner and having regard to the fact that the Norway Funded ECO Project came to an end and closed due to non availability of funds, hence the petitioner is not entitled to be reengaged in service nor is entitled to regularization. Moreover, it does not matter as to whether any disciplinary action on account of misconduct was taken against the petitioner by the respondent at any point of time as the petitioner tried to establish on record that he had quarrel with the Superintendent of his office as a result of which he was shunted out from service but no such case is proved on record and the petitioner services came an end on the completion of the NORAD ECO Project which was closed due to non availability of funds and which factum was also admitted by the petitioner in his cross examination as PW-1 and obviously therefore I have no hesitation in coming to the conclusion that the services of the petitioner was not terminated illegally without complying with the provisions of section 25-F of Industrial Disputes Act, 1947, hence this issue is decided in favour of respondent and against the petitioner.

Issue No. 2.

17. Since I have held under issue No.1 above, that the services of petitioner has not been illegally terminated by the respondent without complying with the provisions of section 25-F of Industrial Disputes Act, 1947, hence the petitioner is not entitled to any relief as prayed for. Accordingly the issue is decided in favour of petitioner and against the respondent.

Issue No. 3.

18. Since the petitioner himself has admitted as PW-1 that his services came to an end after the completion of work, hence I am of the firm opinion that the petitioner has no locus standi to file this claim petition especially when the project came to an end due to non availability of funds which was funded by Norway ECO Project. Accordingly this issue is decided in favour of respondent and against the petitioner holding that the petitioner has no locus standi to file this petition as the project for which he was engaged has already been closed due to non availability of funds.

Relief.

As a sequel to my above discussion and findings on issue No. 1 to 3 above, the claim of the petitioner fails and is hereby dismissed and as such the reference is ordered to be answered accordingly. Let a copy of this award be sent to the appropriate government for publication in the official gazette. File, after completion, be consigned to records.
